Mayor's 2020 Budget Message

On behalf of Grande Prairie City Council, I am pleased to share with you the City of Grande Prairie 2020 budget.

Our commitment to a 4.1% property tax decrease for 2019 paired with significant provincial budget reductions compounded the challenge of this year's discussions.

As a municipality, we continue to strengthen relationships at the provincial level and in our region to work collectively to provide great service to our constituents. City Council approached 2020 budget deliberations with knowledge of a shifting political and economic landscape. Our goal was to set a budget that provides administration the groundwork to deliver core services that provide a high degree of value for residents.

My City Council colleagues and I wanted to ensure we established a budget that meets the community's needs. Through an online budget survey, in-person budget consultation session, and the many day-to-day conversations with the people who call our city home, we heard a desire to stay focused on priorities such as infrastructure, community safety, and social supports.

Throughout budget deliberations, we strived to balance the priorities of our residents with their expectation of fiscal responsibility. City Council's commitment to do as best as possible to shield our residents and businesses from bearing the full weight of provincial decisions stands strong.

In June, we committed to keeping any tax increase in 2020 lower than the rate of inflation. I am proud to share we achieved that goal by setting a moderate property tax increase of 1.25% and endorsing a budget that provides clear direction for our City Manager, Horacio Galanti, to lead and build an exceptional organization that serves our community.

Mayor Bill Given

City Manager's 2020 Budget Message

Grande Prairie City Council has provided a clear budget mandate for Administration to achieve in 2020. The City's Corporate Leadership Team and I enter the new decade with a sharpened focus for the Organization.

2019 was an immense year of change for our Organization as we challenged Administration at all levels to find efficiencies and embrace new ways of providing services. In addition, The Corporate Leadership Team evaluated the City's organizational needs and priorities to undertake a restructure that right-sized the Organization. These shifts set the stage for us to ensure the City's long-term ability to deliver high quality services while staying within Council's fiscally responsible and sustainable mandate.

Moving into 2020, I am excited to have in place a team that will help strengthen our Organization's ability to meet community needs, improve services, and make the most efficient use of resources. We are embracing innovation and new ideas through continuous improvement initiatives, setting clear performance indicators that measure the success of services, and ensuring our priority based budgeting process allocates valuable funds for key services.

As always, Grande Prairie is a place for opportunity and we look forward eagerly to delivering high value and a strong return for our community and the region.

Horacio Galanti, City Manager

The underlying philosophy of priority based budgeting is about how a government entity should invest resources to meet its stated objectives. It helps us to better articulate why the services we offer exist, what price we pay for them, and, consequently, what value they offer citizens.

The principles associated with this philosophy of budgeting are:

- Prioritize Services. Priority based budgeting evaluates the relative importance of individual programs and services rather than entire departments. It is distinguished by prioritizing the services a government provides, one versus another.
- Do the Important Things Well. Cut Back on the Rest. In a time of revenue decline, a traditional budget process often attempts to continue funding all the same programs it funded last year, albeit at a reduced level (e.g. across-the-board budget cuts). Priority based budgeting identifies the services that offer the highest value and continues to provide funding for them, while reducing service levels, divesting, or potentially eliminating lower value services.
- Question Past Patterns of Spending. An incremental budget process doesn't seriously question the spending decisions made in years past. Priority based budgeting puts all the money on the table to encourage more creative conversations about services.
- Spend within the Organization's Means. Priority based budgeting starts with the revenue available to the government, rather than last year's expenditures, as the basis for decision making.
- Know the True Cost of Doing Business. Focusing on the full costs of programs ensures that funding decisions are based on the true cost of providing a service.
- Provide Transparency of Community Priorities. When budget decisions are based on a well-defined set of community priorities, the government's aims are not left open to interpretation.
- Provide Transparency of Service Impact. In traditional budgets, it is often not entirely clear how funded services make a real difference in the lives of citizens. Under priority based budgeting, the focus is on the results the service produces for achieving community priorities.
- Demand Accountability for Results. Traditional budgets focus on accountability for staying within spending limits. Beyond this, priority based budgeting demands accountability for results that were the basis for a service's budget allocation.
